

Just me

I'll be an open book with you my special one You need to know the truth before we can move on

My past is tainted with things I'm not proud of I've always regretted
my failure to love

Yeah I was such a mess and it's hard to express The suffering I've caused to girls with hearts of gold

But I've risen above
My many inner walls
And I have learned to love
The man that I am

*So if one day you dare
To share the love you bear
My heart is open wide
And we could ride the tide*

*With all my force and my weakness
All through my joy and my sadness*

*Along my fear and my courage
This song could be our voyage*

*Whenever you're ready
To jump into the sea
You will find only me
Just me*

I've broken many hearts
And left them torn apart
I didn't want to face that I was a disgrace

I've let some women down
When they most needed me See I was such a clown Foolish as one can be

When it came to lying I was simply the king
My stories were all fake
To make myself look great

But I have freed myself
From being such a sham
And I have learned to care for the man I am

*So if one day you feel Like being by my side
It's always been a dream
That you would be my wife*

*With all my light and my darkness
All through my dreams and my regrets*

Along my life to my last breath This love would stay forever blessed

*Whenever you're ready
To jump into the deep
You will find only me
Just me*

*You will find only me
Just me*